Ki-Hwa

지은 Hwang

I am telling you because it's you.

About Ga-Ul.

He does not like to be talked about himself.

So, I have to make sure. Do not tell him or anyone about him. Again, keep your mouth shut !

When he woke up, 4 years had already passed.

He spent last year to catch up on studying and managed to pass a middle school by-pass exam.

He insisted that he wanted to enter the same school and class with me, so after another test, they determined that he would be okay with high school junior (2nd year) education level.

And he came here, to the same school and to the same class.

Can you imagine ...?

He spent his whole year to catch up 4 lost years.

By the way ...

Why are you so interested in him?

The results for the recent exam are out now.

I will announce the #1 and then give the results out.

So-Hui probably as always...

Han Ga-Ul !

#1 from get-go. Very nice! Keep it up!

Yes!

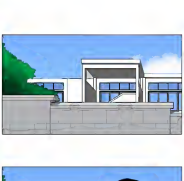
Holy shit, wow...

He dedicated So-Hui. The cross wall has broken

Was he in a private school or something?

Dude, why would a guy from there come here even?

I bet So-Hui's pissed now !



Haha. Just as I see. She looks totally drunk

How do I get to recline this one as a small pond

And I bet I had all ch. color drawing pens than she. studied hard

I guess we don't have to put up with her anymore

Nice to meet you, Han Ga-Ul.
I have to say. You are amazing! Study for one year and you caught up with the best in our class! Have you been studying in secret for 4 years instead?

For you, it's probably an interesting story to keep you out of boredom, but it wasn't easy for me !
I am finally getting back on track and I do not want to mess it up!
I ask you to keep a distance from me! I don't like you at all and just stay out of my life please !

Well..., even if you want me to keep a distance from you and stay out of your life ...

the thing is that ...

There is absolutely nothing I can do about this lovely situation ...

So, even if I tend to hang around him...,
it won't be my fault !
